Admissions

Rule I "Admissions shall not be made later than the ~~Monday following the date of~~ 10th day after the re-opening the High School after the Christmas holidays" - Instead of "the Monday following the date of", may it not be "the tenth day after the" as in the case of candidates who fail in the Matriculation Examination? This is a minor point, but as a rule is being laid down, it seems desirable to be a little lenient.

Rule III A pupil shall not be placed in a lower Form except on the results of a written examination in English and Mathematics Such written examinations are more likely to be held in Govt schools than in private Institutions The latter do not ordinarily exclude ~~the~~ students deserving admission but the former do sometimes on various ~~a~~ considerations. It would perhaps be more satisfactory if the circumstances
